

CONTEMPORARY ACRYLICS

with HEIDI WOLFENDEN

SUNDAY 29TH JUNE
10.00am – 2.30pm

LOCATION: Glen Eira Cheltenham Art Group Studio, Room 81-Bob Flavell Wing
Moorleigh Community Village, 92 Bignell Rd, East Bentleigh

COST: $80 for members. $95 for non-members

ENQUIRIES: Amanda: wyness123@gmail.com or mob: 0413 609 254

BOOKINGS: <https://www.trybooking.com/DBCML>

INSTAGRAM: <https://www.instagram.com/heidiwolfendenart/>

Heidi Wolfenden is a Visual Artist residing in Bayside, Melbourne. She has exhibited her work in numerous art exhibitions over the last 25 years. She is well renowned for her contemporary, colourful and quirky style. She has a B.A. Visual Communication RMIT, Graduate Dip. Education (Visual Art) ACU and recently completed a certificate in Art Therapy. Heidi is passionate about all things creative & loves sharing her knowledge and experience with others. She encourages self-expression and creates a welcoming environment in which everyone can thrive.

WORKSHOP OUTLINE

Come along to our exciting new Contemporary Acrylics Workshop! Students will develop new skills, have a good laugh and come home with one or two small canvas artworks, by the end of the session.

Visual Artist and educator, Heidi Wolfenden, will share helpful tips on composition, colour mixing and a variety of painting techniques. Participants will be encouraged embrace the joy of self-expression in a relaxed and friendly environment. Students will be provided with a range of inspiring reference images to help kickstart their creativity! Participants will also be introduced to the inspiring work of Henri Matisse, Vincent van Gogh, and David Hockney, who shared a passion for contemporary art and are well known for their strong use of colour. This workshop suitable for both beginners and intermediate students.

Art materials: Please bring along a sketch book, grey lead pencil, eraser, sharpener, a range of acrylic paint colours, including black and white and two small blank canvases (approx. 25x30cm)

